Organization

EU Project & Communication Officer – Forestry & Sustainability

 Location: Brussels, Belgium

 Contract Type: Full-time – Permanent

Are you passionate about sustainability, EU projects, and international collaboration? Do you want to make a real impact on policies shaping Europe's forests, land use, and environmental management?

Join the European Landowners' Organization (ELO) as an EU Project & Communication Officer and be at the forefront of groundbreaking EU-funded projects that promote sustainable land use, biodiversity, and climate resilience.

Why Join Us?

At ELO, we unite key players in land management, conservation, and sustainability to create innovative solutions for a greener future. From regenerative agriculture to biodiversity protection, we drive meaningful change in European policies and practices.

As part of our team, you will:

-  Lead and manage high-impact EU projects.
-  Develop strategic communication campaigns to engage diverse audiences.
-  Collaborate with top experts and policymakers across Europe.
-  Organize high-profile events, conferences, and stakeholder meetings.

Your Role & Responsibilities

Project Management:

- Oversee the full lifecycle of EU-funded projects, ensuring successful execution, reporting, and budget management.
- Monitor project progress, anticipate risks, and implement proactive solutions.

Strategic Communication & Outreach:

- Craft compelling content for reports, newsletters, social media, websites, and press releases.
- Develop and implement creative communication strategies to maximize project visibility and influence policy discussions.
- Engage with stakeholders, policymakers, and media to amplify our message.

Stakeholder Engagement & Events:

- Build strong partnerships across Europe to drive collaboration and knowledge exchange.
- Organize and facilitate impactful workshops, meetings, and conferences.
- Represent ELO at key EU events and policy discussions.

Proposal Writing & Reporting:

- Develop and contribute to project proposals, securing funding for future initiatives.
- Showcase project achievements through high-quality reports and deliverables.

What We're Looking For

- ✓ A Bachelor's, Master's, or PhD in communications, environmental studies, political science, or a related field.
- ✓ Proven experience in EU project management – from proposal writing to implementation and reporting.
- ✓ Strong knowledge of EU institutions, policies, and funding programs in sustainability, environment, or biodiversity.
- ✓ Exceptional writing, editing, and content creation skills across different platforms.
- ✓ Experience in strategic communication, including social media campaigns and stakeholder engagement.
- ✓ Excellent English skills (additional European languages are a plus!).
- ✓ Detail-oriented with outstanding organizational and multitasking abilities.
- ✓ Background or interest in forestry-related topics is a strong advantage but not mandatory.

What We Offer

-  A dynamic and collaborative work environment with a team committed to sustainability.
-  The chance to work on EU-wide projects that drive real impact.
-  Opportunities for professional growth and skill development.
-  Flexible work arrangements to support work-life balance.
-  A competitive salary and benefits package.
